Facilitator Training

The Initial Weeks:

This 13 week apprenticeship is for those called to discover a new way of living... a reality based in harmony and truth.

The Mayan Dreamspell is directly linked to the Mayan Civilisation and their treasures of wisdom for living in alignment.

You will learn, through a deeper exploration of your own unique essence, the foundations of this system and the basics of how to start sharing it with support others.

The intention of these initial weeks of the training is to unlock the magic within you. Along the way we will be developing a foundational understanding of Mayan Astrology.

Mayan Astrology is both practical, with its symmetrical structure and logical unfolding, as well as magical in the way it brings the elements of ancient wisdom into this reality.

The world we live in is changing, and we need a new way of viewing time, one that no longer traps us, but sets us free.

The Apprentice Weeks:

After week 6, we will slightly shift gears.

When you get to this stage, our mission then becomes enabling you to share and teach this with confidence and a deeper understanding.

This journey is for those wanting to offer services, hold workshops, or incorporate this modality into their offerings. Or, if you are simply inspired to dive all the way in and learn this wisdom through-and-through!

You will learn the very systems and tools that will help you, and those you guide, align with their truest self and highest power.

As we fortify your framework, we also start to cultivate your unique way of incorporating and sharing this in your life.

Everyone has a unique teaching style and this is why the initial weeks are so helpful. It allows us to receive a clear perspective on the unique magic you have to share!
